Reference: Matthew Bird – Executive producer on 'The Musketeers Series 3':

"Zoe and all the costume team were brilliant throughout. The work was incredibly creative, always on time and delivered with a smile. The cast, directors and producers unanimously only had praise for the costume department as we really pushed the boundaries in all areas on this series. Zoe is great to have in any team (she worked particularly well with Hayley Nebauer) and I would be very happy to work with her again."
