

WILLIAM BLUNDENEditor*

Coming from a line of editors (Will's father Chris and grandfather Bill were editors too) cutting has been in Will's blood from an early age. He took the time-honoured route of assisting, including on some major features as well as episodic television, and it was on the BBC's 'Hetty Feather' that he made the jump up from assisting to Editor. Now with four episodes of the Mark Schwahn's 'The Royals' behind him, Will's already made a great start to 2017.
