

KATIE PICKLES

Make-up & Hair Designer

Katie Pickles has worked her way up through the ranks, and it's down to a well-calibrated balance of talent, skill at managing her department, and affability. Her experience covers period to present day, and fantasy to action-adventure, and she made the jump to HOD in 2015 with ITV's 'Maigret' with Rowan Atkinson in the lead. She's well-liked by both producers and talent, is based in London, and available for work worldwide.
