

JOSEPH TIMS*Editor*

Jo says of himself: 'as an editor I trust my creative instincts and ability to extract the most emotional response from the story I'm telling'. In a twelve-year career, he has moved easily between drama, documentary and live music, and enjoys the discipline of episodic television as much as the creativity of feature films, and he's now in the middle of his third feature as Editor, the forthcoming Aneurin Barnard/Samantha Barks starrer 'Melody'. Jo is based in London and available for work worldwide. Visit www.josephtims.com for more information and to view some of Jo's work.
