Costume Designers Guild, local 892

Born and raised in Los Angeles, Ms. Wrigley found her niche for costume design in 2010 thanks to a lifetime interest in psychology and fashion. The quality and consistency of her work has lead directors and production companies to rehire her time and time again, and with an additional background in fashion design and accounting she has all the expertise needed to meet a project's vision without compromising the aesthetics or budget. After a 10-year career working on a rich variety of films and shows, Ambre now wishes to focus the remainder of her career towards children's content. Based in Los Angeles, she is available for work worldwide.
