

SARAH TAPSCOTT

Costume Designer

Sarah studied costume at the National Youth Theatre, working on plays performed at The Bloomsbury Theatre and The Place, but it was while studying at Glasgow School of Art that she discovered a greater passion for film. She now has over a dozen Costume Designer credits on feature films and episodic television. She enjoys creating authentic characters through her styling, she's respected by producers for getting her department in on budget, and gets on well with cast and crew equally.
