

MARK GUTHRIE*Line Producer / Producer*

Mark began his career as a 1st AD before moving into Production Management, and is now established as a Line Producer. Having come up through the ranks, he brings a practical understanding of both set and production and is known for his calm approach and ability to keep things running smoothly, even on more complex shoots and across a range of budgets. Based in the Midlands, Mark has built strong relationships across the industry and has worked extensively across the UK and internationally.
