ALESSANDRO GARAU

Location Manager

Alessandro is a London-based Location Manager with over 12 years' experience across feature films, television, and commercials in the UK and internationally. Beginning his career in Italy on major commercials before moving to London, where he has worked across independent films and HETV projects. Combining creative insight with logistical expertise, Alessandro manages locations, budgets, contracts, and crews to support the director's vision and deliver efficient shoots under pressure. Known for a decisive yet diplomatic approach, he has strong relationships with owners, vendors, and authorities alike. Fluent in Italian and English, with intermediate level of French, he brings adaptability and international experience to every production.
