

ANDREW RODGER

Director of Photography

Andrew's tenth feature – 'No Way Up' – was released in the UK and USA earlier this year, and it builds on his episodic television credits for the BBC, Netflix, ITV and ITVX over the last few years. He's a DoP who's always light on his feet, and will always make the most of whatever demands the script and Production might make of him. Based in London, he'll go where the work takes him.
