

EMMA MULDER

Costume Designer

Dutch-born Emma joined the industry firstly as Assistant, and quickly rose through the ranks to become Costume Maker and then Assistant Designer. She's worked on everything from shorts to major studio productions and a credit as Costume Designer is now well within her grasp. She acknowledges no small debt to renowned designers Annie Symons, Jenny Beavan and Tim Aslam, and because Emma's as affable as she is talented, people just like working with her.
