

GEORGINA MILLIGAN

Script Supervisor

Georgie's career began in entertainment shows and comedy - as good a place as any for her to hone her craft before the move into drama. But then she took some time off to raise a family and is now back in the fray. She's worked on multiple features and recently added ITV's hit show 'The Bay' to her list of credits, and her experience across most formats have led her to a place where any and all script challenges can easily be overcome.
