

WILLIAM DUTTON*1st Assistant Director*

Will began his ascent through the ranks of the AD department as a floor runner, and gradually worked his way up from 3rd to 2nd and then to 1st AD. He's worked on a ton of big-name productions and is very well accustomed to the present-day challenges and ambitions of episodic television drama. Directors and producers alike appreciate his cool and calm but no-nonsense running of the floor. Based in London, he'll go where the work takes him.
